These course dates include the few Certificates that were inadvertently missed last year or which were mislaid/pasted without franking by Australia Post. Please be aware that changes to our system have been put in place so these errors cannot happen again! We now retain a full colour copy of each Certificate before they leave our office that may be scanned and emailed if a copy is required We do sincerely apologise for any delay and thank all our great students for their immense patience.

The below Certificates have all been posted, delivered or the student contacted for Certificate collection today 2nd March 2011. Please contact the office if you do not receive your Certificate within the next few days.
